22 May – 13 June

Estuary 2021 is the second edition of the large-scale arts festival that celebrates the lives, landscapes and histories of the spectacular Thames Estuary.

Taking place online, and in the landscape along 107 miles of Thames Estuary Trail, contemporary artworks, discussion and events explore and respond to powerful themes resonant to the estuary.

Alongside a map that shows the full trail, we have created six, smaller sections of the route with accompanying details of the artworks and events to be found as you explore.

Route 6 of 6 can be enjoyed across a long weekend - or as three days out.

All details correct at the time of print. Some events may change to comply with Covid-19 safety protocols. Please check estuaryfestival.com

Events

The Sea View Has Me Again

Patrick Wright & Shona Illingworth
A radio programme, made by writer Patrick Wright and artist Shona Illingworth, marking the publication of Patrick's The Sea View Has Me Again - Uwe Johnson in Sheerness (Repeater, June 2021) Includes readings from Johnson's descriptions of the 'moral utopia' he found on Sheppey made with local arts organisation Big Fish. Broadcast on Sheppey FM, 92.2FM, on Sun 23 May (and listen again on the Estuary website).

72

Sonic Atlas

Caroline Bergvall
Sonic Atlas is poet and artist Caroline's most ambitious work to date, an immersive audio-visual work with multiple languages and a new composition by Gavin Bryars, drawing on the nomadic histories and ancient multilingual routes of medieval love poetry, and representing them against a current political backdrop of division. The Sonic Atlas Evening Work event will take place Autumn 2021, see website for more details.

Full details for booking on website.

Estuary 2021 Margate Hub

Open Wed-Sun 10:00-17:00
(Bank Holiday Mon 31 May 11:00-16:00).

Call by for more information on the festival, and to pick up Estuary publications, and activity sheets for children and young people. Located at the Thanet Visitor Information Centre, The Droit House, Stone Pier CT9 1JD.

Thames Estuary Trail Walk

Tom King

The author of Thames Estuary Trail: A Walk Round the End of the World, leads a walk from Hampton Pier, to Reculver. Limited places, advance booking essential, see website for more information. 10 June, 13:00-14:00.

Jezreel's Tower

John Walter

A new virtual reality film telling the story of James Jereshom Jezreel, his apocalyptic cult and the building of their headquarters in Gillingham. Watch the film on the Estuary website (with or without VR headset).

Gillingham

Escaping with Magwitch

Carol Donaldson & Stephen Turner
After a long winter in lockdown, writer Carol Donaldson and artist Stephen Turner are escaping to the North Kent Marshes in a small inflatable boat called Magwitch. Before they set out, they recorded a conversation at Horrid Hill, touching on their in-depth knowledge of the fragile edgelands of the North Kent marshes. Find the sign at Horrid Hill, Riverside Country Park ME7 2XH to download the conversation, and visit the Estuary website to find out more information about Stephen and Carol's voyage.

Isle of Sheppey

Crude Britannia No 3 Platform

Map sited at the Admiral's Arm Micropub, Queenborough ME11 5AD, detailing the history, present and future of energy across the expanse of the Estuary. Part of a wider project including online events, marking the publication of Crude Britannia - How oil shaped a nation by James Marriott and Terry Macalister (Pluto Books 2021) - see website for more details.

Watermark

Maria Amidu

A series of eight artworks to mark the 107 mile walk described in Tom King's Thames Estuary Trail have been created by artist Maria Amidu. They chronicle her enjoyment in discovering both the book and the places referred to along the trail. All are located at great stopping places to either eat, rest or visit. The sixth is hosted by The Coffee Pot, in Leysdown, ME12 4QB.

Faversham

Lissener

Feral Practice and Esi Eshun
New darkly comic audio work responding to the ruined Oare Gunpowder Works, Oare Creek and Oare Marshes. Oare's explosive past intertwines with diverse natural histories in this watery world, disturbing the expected hierarchies between species and states of being. The creaturely cast of characters includes Noctule bats, wading birds, a Bamboo Worm and a Southern Hawker dragonfly. Download the work from Oare Gunpowder Works Country Park, ME13 7UD.

Our Time

Marcus Coates

A series of six clock towers along the North Kent coastline have the songs and calls of locally threatened bird species, to be heard as clocks would chime, on the hour. This one is hosted by Faversham Guildhall, Market Place. Every day from 07:00-23:00.

Trolley Reef

Something & Son

A fold out poster blueprint to be found in Faversham cafes, with details of a new oyster reef planned for North Kent, made from recycled shopping trolleys.
